FARAWAY FRAGRANCES

Perfumes that offer a map of the world, perfumes blended to evoke faraway places. Memo has brought out a collection of four perfumes to facilitate escape over a fragrant trail to destinations of dreams and adventure. Exotic and rare essences like rock-rose, tiara flower - the Tahitian gardenia, narcissus, iris, pear wood, and the neo-tropical tonka bean take you to the places the perfumes are named for. Lalibela, the sacred city of Ethiopia; Siwa, the faraway oasis home to the oracle consulted by Cleopatra and Alexander the Great; Sundance, looking out onto the vastness of Utah; and Inle, the mythical, reflective lake of Burma upon whose shores women weave silk. Escape to the rest of the world in the luxury perfume boutique, Memo on the Left Bank, 60 rue des Saints-Pères (6th), 01 42 22 96 63.

IT'S A MAN'S WORLD

Men, rejoice! A men's only spa has recently opened to give you all you need in peace and quite and without being surrounded by women getting facials and getting their hair done in a "zen" spa. Guest Men is all testosterone. Designed with a male clientele in mind, the spa has a real retro feel. Primarily with a black and red décor, it is very urban-like in design, very sleek and modern, and definitely masculine. Our favourite touch, the vintage barber chairs, where you can sit and get a shave the way they did it in the old days, ask for the rasage à l'ancienne. They also offer facial and body treatments as well as manicures, pedicures, waxing, and a variety of massages.

39 rue Cardinet (17th), 01 44 40 04 79.

BE OUR GUEST AT PRINTEMPS

If you love hotels as much as we do and wish you were always surrounded by the comfort and service offered at the deluxe hotels, then you will love visiting Printemps in August. This month, the department store is transforming itself into a luxurious "hotel". The entrance of the store will be given a facelift and will emerge as a hotel lobby, while the 11 store windows will each be designed in reference to the well-known 5-star hotels here in Paris, reflecting each hotel's unique signature style. Did someone say room service?

→ When entering any store in Paris it is customary to say Bonjour and when leaving to say Merci, au revoir.
